

Tower Grove Heights Neighborhood Association - Sponsored Families

Thanks to all who will make our 21st year possible!!

Pick one (or more) to buy for:

Family 1: A woman with mental health issues caring for her great granddaughter. She has recently acquired housing, but lost furniture due to bed bugs. She lent her daughter some money which now she realizes she will not get back and has little to provide her great granddaughter with for a nice holiday.

Mother (66): Size (14)

Great granddaughter (11): Size 16 children's

Special Requests: Queen size bed linen (brown) , pillows, blankets; bicycle for girl; painting and jewelry making supplies; Walart gift cards, home supply gift cards

Family 2: A single mother with four children was involved in a shooting a few years ago and everyone is still physically and emotionally recovering from the incident. Her mother passed away recently and that has been another blow as the entire family was close with her. She works to provide for the family, but it isn't enough for monthly bills or anything extra.

Mother (31): Size L/7.5 shoe

Daughter (13): Size 12-14 Children's/5.5 women's shoe

Son (12): Size 18 Children's/6.5 men's shoe

Daughter (6): 6 Children's/1 children's shoe

Son (5): 6 Children's/ 1 children's shoe

Special Requests: Money to catch up on bills; winter clothing; Toys for kids: Bluey, trucks, wrestlers, barbie, play food, video games, bike, makeup, lashes, purses; home and health supply gift cards

Family 3: Two adults, a woman with cerebral palsy and her mother who cares for her. They are unable to maintain the house they live in and need assistance with repairs, taxes, and daily living. A boost would go a long way to help this family along.

Mother (68): Size IX Women's

Daughter (44) Size XL Women's

Special Requests: Money to catch up on bills; gift cards for grocery, gas, home, and personal supplies; winter clothing for both; full size bed linen and blankets; size 9 briefs (underwear); JCPenny gift card; gift cards to eat out

Both families need the following:

Gift cards: medicine/drug stores, gas, food, cleaning supplies, personal hygiene products

Consider: Walgreens, Target, Walmart, Schnucks, Aldi, BP, or another related store

Educational Items: gift cards for toy or bookstores

Cash for: gifts, utility bills, and other expenses
